Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Good deeds reap many rewards for the doer as well as the recipient; and,

WHEREAS, Concerned and caring persons can and do make a difference in the lives of the handicapped, the elderly, the lonely, and others who need special attention from time to time; and,

WHEREAS, Caring people become receivers, not the givers; and,

WHEREAS, Good deeds can turn darkness into light and help the sun shine in; and,

WHEREAS, Doing good deeds can make children of the future better human beings and future leaders of our country; and,

WHEREAS, Money can't buy good deeds, they come from the heart:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 16 through 22, 1989, as in South Dakota, and hereby urge every citizen to observe this week by performing a good deed for a caring recipient.

GOOD DEEDS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
